Why?

Why using our point of sale materials is a good idea

We strongly believe that the use of our point of sale materials will increase the perceived value and thereby the commercial impact of the product.

Based on this belief, we annually invest a lot of resources to optimize the range of materials we believe will create a positive development of our business relationship.

The Danish sofa bed specialist

A sofa bed is not just a product, it is the solution to a problem. By being two furniture in one, it will save space and expand your living space.

Based on continuous end user studies, Innovation Living has, for the last 50 years, been dedicated to the development of designs that optimize the relation between aesthetics and functionality.

A sofa bed should not be a compromise, but must be as attractive as a good sofa, and as comfortable as a good bed.

To ensure that the potential end user understands and appreciates our dedication and the invested effort, we are constantly developing marketing materials that will efficiently convey this message.

Omnichannel

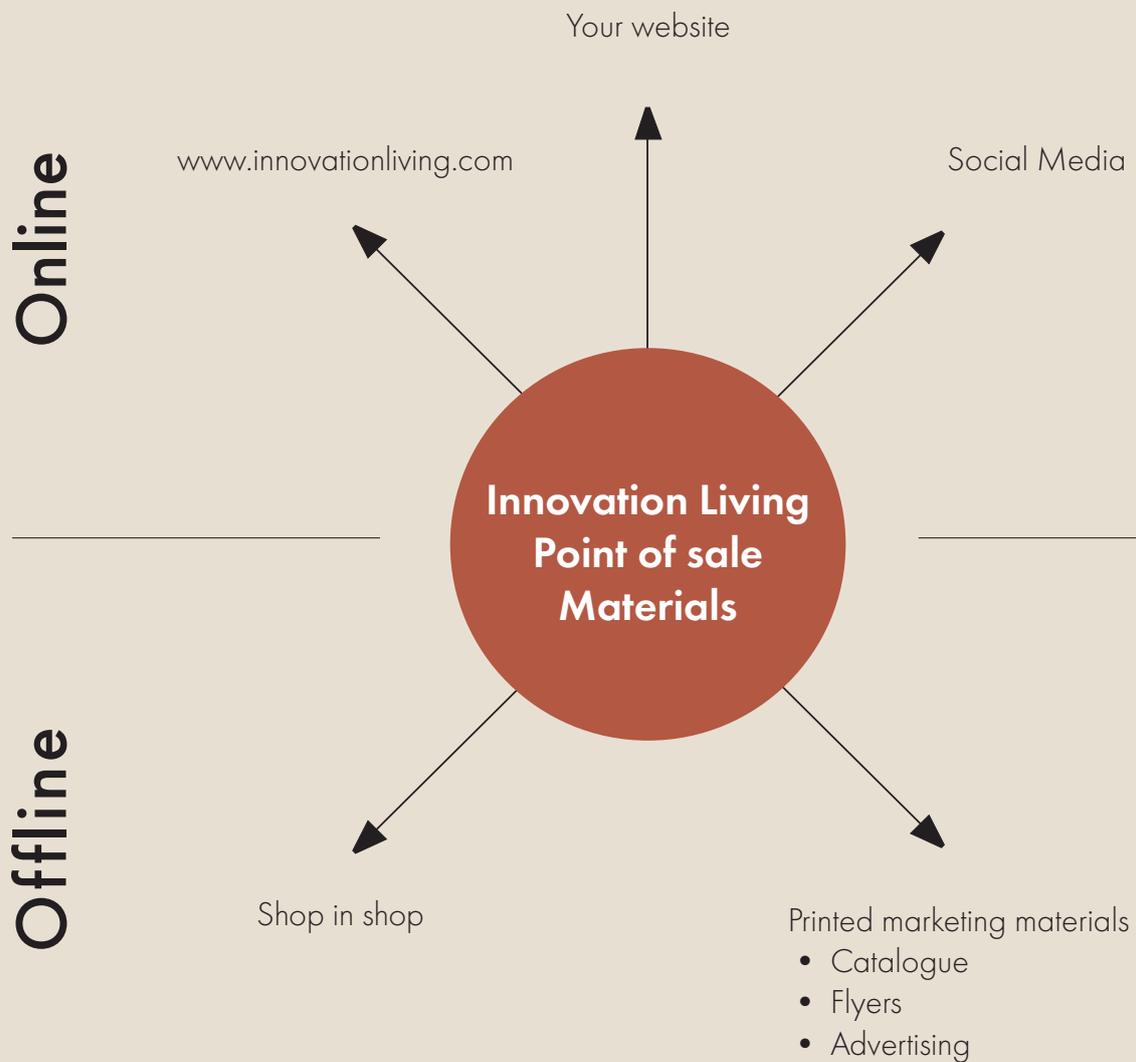

We strongly believe in omnichannel. The trustworthiness and hereby commercial impact is enhanced by ensuring that the appearance of the brand is uniform across all touchpoints and that the touchpoints are interconnected.

Therefore, we strongly recommend that you use our marketing material, online and offline, and that you will use and link to our website to make optimal use of our visualizer, and the branding impact of the site in general.

Efficient brand impact means higher perceived value and higher commercial impact of the product.

Let us help each other to be as successful as possible.

Uniform appearance of Innovation Living across all touch-points will increase the perceived value and the commercial impact of the products.

Online Toolbox

The marketing toolbox has been developed to strengthen our dealer’s online and offline performance, by providing all essential product information like; inspirational lifestyle images, packshots, measurement icons, videos, product data, product descriptions and more.

Our website showcase all our marketing materials. You are more than welcome to use it as inspiration for dealer sites. All marketing materials can be downloaded from the Download Manager that can be accessed on our website.

Its important to note, that it is the dealer’s obligation to remove and terminate use of specific Innovation Living marketing materials, when a product is no longer in our collection. This requirement applies to all marketing materials, including, but not limited to, affiliate marketing ads, online and offline campaigns etc. To ensure our intellectual property is not violated, this obligation applies for all Innovation Living marketing materials, if our cooperation is terminated.

01: Download Manager - Single marketing assets

By clicking “DOWNLOAD” in the upper right corner of our website, you access our Download Manager for single marketing assets.

You are able to download generic marketing materials such as logos and measurement icons as single downloads.

02: Download Manager - Full package downloads

By clicking directly on “PRODUCT IMAGES AND VIDEOS” you will get access to an extensive package of materials and product information needed for publishing the product online/offline.

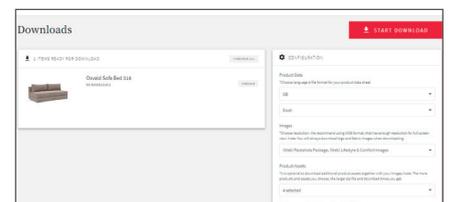

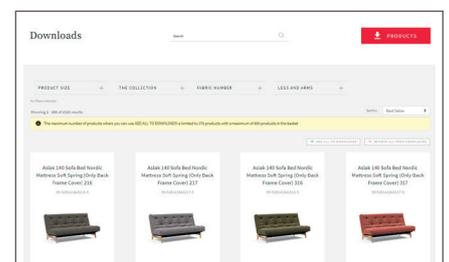

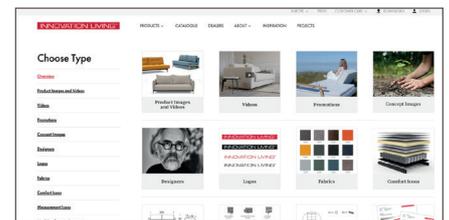

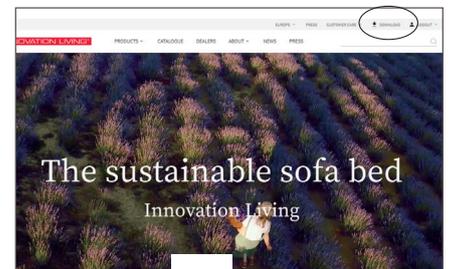

When entering you will recognize a lot of elements from our website - and it is basically a website with free content for all products.

You add products to the basket when clicking ADD TO DOWNLOADS or ADD ALL TO DOWNLOADS.

For a good user experience, the maximum number of products you can add at the same time to the basket is 170. The total amount of products in the basket is limited to 800 products.

Click on the “PRODUCTS” basket and choose which marketing materials you want to download for all products before check out.

Osvald, 282 Avella, Warm Grey

Osvald is a roomy, comfortable and space saving sofa bed equipped with a large storage box. Highlighting what Innovation Living is all about; Expand Your Living Space. If floor space allows it, the Cornila should be added as an ottoman with integrated storage, it also doubles as a lounger for the sofa.

Eilis, Avella 280, Sand

With its signature details, Eilis is our latest addition and a testament to current trends. Its shape and style in combination with a fabric with a soft and inviting surface, a bit of character and texture.

Malloy + pouf, 579 Kenya Gravel

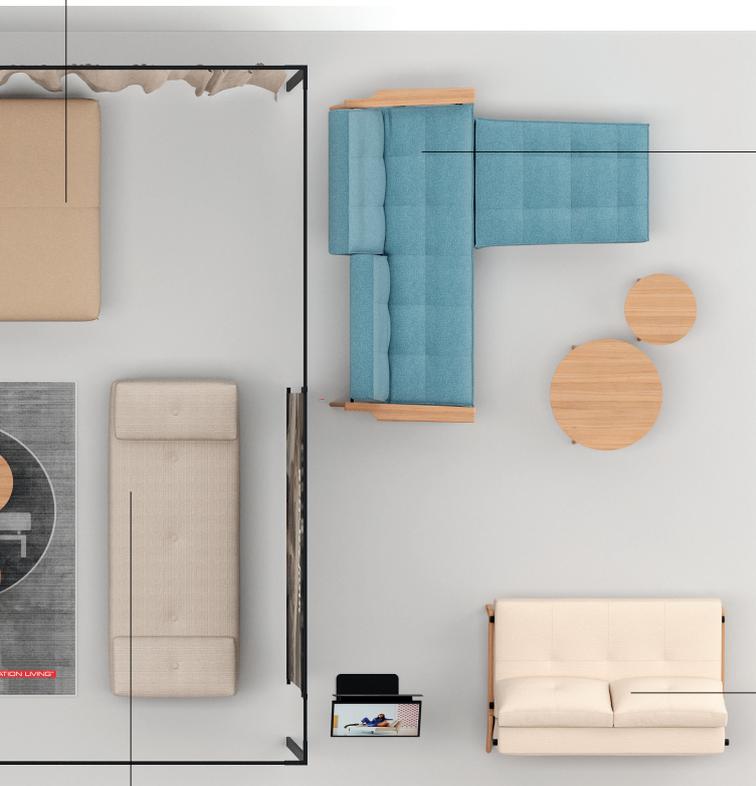

Malloy is designed for the living room as a comfortable lounge sofa that easily transforms into a functional bed when required. The design's signature is the soft functional pillow arm and the large comfortable back cushions with a height that ensures good support for the neck and head. We propose the Malloy in our Kenya Gravel fabric that speaks to the fabric trend for 2024.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to your Innovation Living sales contact for a thorough introduction to our Point of Sale concept.

Aslak Soft Spring Nordic 140, 357 Taura, Off White

Aslak with a soft spring mattress wrapped in our Nordic cover is an absolute must. Aslak in size 140 with its natural oak legs is our best seller in our Multifunctional category. A category that offer premium, soft comfort and is the most versatile category within our range of sofa beds. Our range of multifunctionals feature sofa, relax, and bed position including a 5-step head elevation. Aslak is our best seller, but there are many versions of these designs by combining the frame, mattress, and cover of your preference.

Splitback Frej and Eik Chair, 525 Mixed Dance Blue

The Splitback Frej sofa and Eik chair boast the elegance of Danish design. Splitback Frej is timeless sofa bed appropriate for multiple rooms and living environments. The best selling and natural choice with its iconic oak arm rests that display a truly Danish design style.

The Splitback is part of our Modular category that feature a multitude of options across sofas and chairs. The modularity of these designs accommodates the different use scenarios of any compact living situation when sofa and chairs are combined.

Cubed 140 Wood, 612 Blida, Sand Grey

The Cubed design is our best selling sofa bed and an absolute must to display. The wood details in combination with a commercial sandy color is absolutely on trend for 2024. The Cubed range offers a large number of opportunities in sizing and leg/arm types, allowing you to sell multiple versions using one display model.

Cubed is part of our Compact designs that require a minimum of space in sofa position and are characterized by the way they convert to bed as the full length of the bed opens out into the room.

Sigmund oak 579 Kenya Gravel

The Sigmund is our best selling Daybed. It easily converts from traditional daybed into one king size bed or two single beds making it a versatile wonder for flexible living. The two rounded pocket spring mattresses convey plenty of chances to re-arrange and adapt to any room.

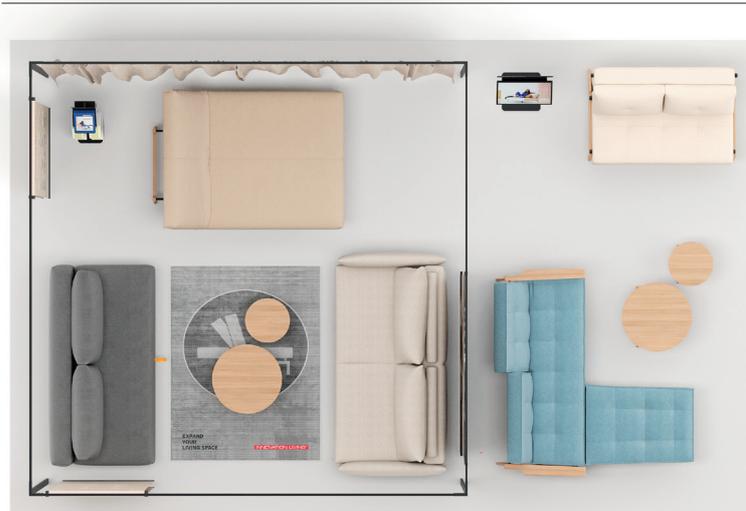

Our range of daybeds are an excellent choice for mixed-use rooms such as guest rooms and home offices.

Fabric swatch service

We have developed a fabric swatch service for you to send to your customers when you, as our Dealer, send out fabric swatches. Considering that you are the one responsible for handling direct consumer sales, we believe it is preferred that you send fabric swatches directly to the consumer. In doing so, you have a great call to action opportunity as you can gather your customer's information and follow up afterwards to close the sale. If necessary, we can send out fabric swatches directly for a minor service charge.

Sustainable practices

- Responsible
We contribute to the balance of the global ecosystem by planting more trees than we cut down each year to ensure a net-planting of trees.
- Responsible materials
We thoughtfully select all materials, considering their overall impact on the environment and the health of the planet.
- Responsible energy
A growing part of our collection comes from renewable and sustainable energy.
